

What is Friends of Golowan?

FoG is an independent organization which exists to support the Golowan Festival in its cultural and educational activities.

Does Friends of Golowan run the festival?

No, it exists to support the festival by both fundraising and by encouraging volunteering, and provide a means of information sharing and feedback between the festival and the public.

How do I join Friends of Golowan?

Fill in a membership form and send it to the membership secretary along with your payment. You can find a membership form and details of where to send it on the website www.friendsofgolowan.com

Who can join Friends of Golowan?

Any adult with an interest in supporting the Golowan Festival, no matter where you live.

How much does it cost?

The membership fee is £12 per year, although you are free to donate more if you wish.

What do I get for my money?

At present, we can offer simply the warm feeling of supporting your favourite festival. As the membership grows, we aim to provide benefits such as discounts at Golowan events, a regular newsletter and invitations to sociable fundraising events throughout the year.

Who runs Friends of Golowan?

Everyone involved in running the organisation is a volunteer. We aim to be a representative organization of the festival's supporters and if you can offer some time or skills and would like to help, please let us know. You can email us at admin@friendsofgolowan.com

We would love to hear from you

When there was a public meeting about Golowan in 2015 well over 1000 people joined a Facebook group to show their support. We would love to think that most of those people would like to extend that support to the real world. Friends of Golowan can only achieve its aims if it grows its membership – please join us.
